Re: Jane Gibson

Interview with: Mr. Ainsland, garage owner near The Pines on Lincoln Highway.

Together with Mr. Neilson operative went to the garage of Mr. Ainsland on the Lincoln Highway near the Pines.

He stated that he has known Mrs. Jane Gibson for the past ten years and that he went to her farm on several occasions in answer to an advertisement which she had in the newspapers offering pigs for sale.

On another occasion Gov. Silzer's son was driving a machine along the Highway about 500 feet east of his garage one night about 5 years ago and he struck a horse which was ridden by a boy. This horse turned out to be owned by Mrs. Gibson. She went at Mr. Silzer's son for a settlement and finally got $300. as result of the accident. Mr. Ainsland claims the horse was worth about $25. After that Mrs. Gibson often stopped in her car and made purchases of gas and oil from him. Mr. Ainsland stated that this Gibson woman is "an awful liar" and he is willing to testify, if wanted, as to her character and knows that she would do anything for money.

Mr. Ainsland is a prosperous business man and stated that he owns a mile and a half of property along the Lincoln Highway which is valued at $300,000 at present and within five years will be worth a million dollars.
